

Internet Terms of Use for Wireless Access

The library has established these terms of use under CBJ 03.20.020 to assure use of the library's wireless network access point is in keeping with the nature of the library's program and services. Use of this service is a privilege. Failure to comply with these terms may result in the loss of that privilege.

By clicking "I agree" you are agreeing to abide by the terms of use below:

1. Graphic material accessed over this network may not include sexually explicit images. A written definition of sexually explicit is available on the library's policy page, www.juneau.org/library/policies.php, section 2.2c, or from staff.
2. Viewing, downloading, or transmitting child pornography is a criminal act under AS 11.61.123 & 127 and will be reported to law enforcement.
3. You may not modify the library's internal network or its settings in any way.
4. The library is not responsible for damage to personal technology.
5. Although efforts are made to maintain the confidentiality and privacy of personal information, the library cannot guarantee confidentiality or privacy on computers used over this network.
